
From: Ken Ivory

Subject: Re: Rep. Zinki - Interior

Date: December 14, 2016 at 3:09:00 PM EST

To: [REDACTED]

Cc: ke [REDACTED] <[REDACTED]@allstate.com> , [REDACTED] <[REDACTED]@allstate.com> , Alan.Gardner@washco.utah.gov <Alan.Gardner@washco.utah.gov> , leland.pollock@hotmail.com <leland.pollock@hotmail.com> , Michael Noel <mikenoe@le.utah.gov> , mnoel5603@gmail.com <mnoel5603@gmail.com>

He is against local control of lands and waffles persistently. Very bad pick!

> On Dec 14, 2016, at 12:58 PM, [REDACTED] wrote:

>

> Ken,

> Ken, I'm in Washington DC.

> I've been reading some interesting and troubling messages on Mr. Zinki.

> First, I've heard the invitation to serve as Secretary of Interior has been issued but not accepted. That ties to the upcoming opportunity to unseat Sen. Tester.

> But, next are a long list of concerns related to his lack of understanding and maybe bias related to Interior administered lands.

> A good friend from Mississippi, who is a sportsman, wondered if Zinki's interest in expanding hunting opportunities - even if that means cuts in livestock grazing AUMs.

> I'm hearing he has been at odds as a freshman on House Natural Resources in like the National Lands Conservation Fund (I think). I'm wondering where Zinki would line up in transfer of federal lands or even the state generated compromise PLI?

> If this guy is not for moving the needle on more local control and management of timber, mining and grazing to underpin our rural industries, provide jobs and help our rural communities what do we do? We need to push Mike Noel to head up BLM - but is this guy going to be willing to move the needle and shake up the internal biases of the agency?

> Randy

>

> Sent from my iPhone

>

>

> Disclaimer:

>

> This email message and any attachments are intended only for the use of the intended recipient, and may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or exempt from disclosure under applicable law. If you are not the intended recipient or an authorized representative of the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any dissemination, distribution or copying of this communication is strictly prohibited. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by replying to this email, and delete or destroy all copies of the original message and attachments thereto. Email sent to or from FBL Financial Group, Inc. and its Affiliates may be retained as required by law, regulation or business practice.

>

> For security reasons we strongly discourage the submission of sensitive or personal information, such as credit card numbers, social security numbers, or bank account information, through email. Email may not be a secure method of communication. Any email may be copied and held by various computers as it makes its way from our server to yours. Persons not participating in our communications may be able to intercept the communications by improperly accessing my computer or your computer or an unconnected computer through which this email passes. If you prefer that we communicate with you via a non-electronic method, please advise us of the same.